KEYNOTE 2

Silver-Lining Adventures

The art of gaining perspective and tolerance in a crisis

In this stirring keynote, Shawn shares real-life stories and lessons of how he has narrowly avoided disaster. These stories range from his training for, running in, and experiencing first-hand the chaos of the 2013 Boston Marathon to losing irreplaceable personal effects as a result of one careless action. These very different, yet inspiring, tales come together through shared themes of gaining perspective and suspending judgment. As a teambuilding professional, Shawn explains how broadening your outlook, persevering, and taking a moment to show tolerance and patience for others can enhance team and leadership skills, especially in times of conflict or crisis.

Develop your teambuilding and leadership skills through inspiring stories that teach perspective and tolerance. Face difficulties in life and business with a sense of adventure and reap the benefits of that bold perspective.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Judgment: First impressions are not always true reflections of one's character

Crisis management: Continually gather information and communicate effectively

Perspective: Expand your horizons and you will have a different viewpoint

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

In addition to delivering a keynote speech at your event, Shawn can be available to present an interactive breakout session. This session must be scheduled the same day as the keynote speech. For information on this value-added offer, please contact Shawn's office

Collective Team Building & Debriefing

When they are properly executed, teambuilding activities are pivotal in building a high-performing team. The Adventure Wave model of experiential learning will be incorporated into both interactive teambuilding activities and subsequent debriefing techniques. Effective teambuilding activities teach essential elements for team development including goal setting, communication, trust, and decision-making in a fun and supportive atmosphere. In this session we will work through the five stages of teambuilding activity—Ice Breakers, De-inhibitors, Trust and Empathy, Communication, and Decision Making / Problem Solving—that generate the tools that successfully facilitate fun, metaphor-based, interactive teambuilding activities.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- How to effectively facilitate interactive teambuilding activities
- Use strategic metaphor-based learning to debrief teambuilding activities
- The application of principles learned through debriefing techniques to individual relevant work and life situations

Leadership Communication

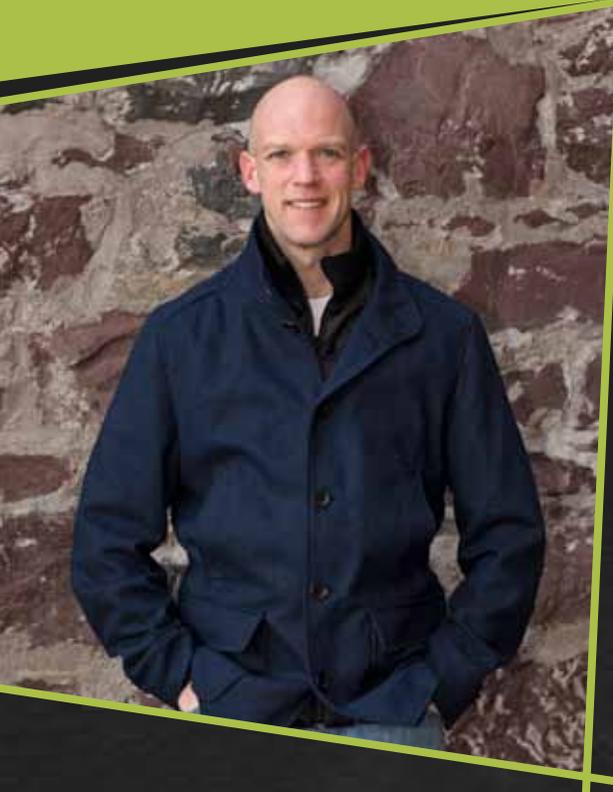

Handling conflicts appropriately in the workplace is a challenging but necessary reality for a leader. How a leader deals with conflict either serves to better a team or contributes to its demise. This session targets some of the most challenging aspects of communication that leaders face. Shawn engages participants in a series of interactive initiatives, which are designed to teach essential communication tools so that their teams can reach their full potential.

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Learn vital skills for building trust, delivering (and receiving) effective feedback, resolving conflict, coaching, and motivating a team.

“ I am writing to both endorse and recommend LiveMore Group as a provider of Corporate Team Building facilitation to any organization. Shawn helped us achieve the overall objective of the event as well as having fun along the way. The knowledge and skills we gained from our day together are already being applied in the office. “ It was a pleasure working with Shawn in the planning and delivery of our 2-day leadership team retreat. From the planning stages through to the facilitation, Shawn was a consummate professional and easy to work with. His expertise and passion for organizational team building were evident as he led our team through a riveting series of fun, thought provoking activities. Teamwork and mutual respect were themes that were maintained throughout the retreat and positively impacted our team exercises. ”

Robert Simmons
Manager, Human Resources, Exploration & Production (East Coast), Suncor Energy

“ Our organization, like many others, is going through significant internal change, as well as grappling with a generationally diverse work force and a rapidly changing technological platform. Workload pressure and stress are at an all time high. Shawn created an environment, far removed from the workplace and workplace roles, that allowed us to reconnect as human beings and to recognize the value of our colleagues as well as the impact our own behaviour patterns can have on maximizing our potential as a team. He led the team through this process through fun, active and energizing exercises that brought everyone together and generated plenty of laughs and smiles along the way. I would highly recommend Shawn to any team looking to maximize their potential. ”

Lee Marshall
Area Director Newfoundland and Labrador Veterans Affairs Canada

“ This is my second time working with Shawn and once again he has been an outstanding facilitator for our team building session. He brings a tremendous amount of knowledge and experience working with teams. His messages are delivered in a style that is interactive, thought provoking and a lot of fun at the same time. Shawn created a positive learning environment where our group members felt comfortable to share insightful personal information that will help our team reach its full potential. The varied sessions took us out of our daily routines and assisted to look at ourselves from different angles. The feedback communication skills that we learned and practiced were being implemented upon returning to the office. Shawn’s inspirational presentation on The Power of Teams shared invaluable lessons that will resonate with our team. ”
